

Trio Residential, LLC ("Referring Firm") refers Trio Leasing, LLC and its affiliated property holding companies ("Buyer") (collectively or individually "Trio") to _____, "Broker". Broker asserts that it is licensed to conduct business in: _____ (Fill in Licensed States). As outlined in this Broker Referral Agreement, ("Agreement"), Referral Fees are due from Broker to Referring Firm for representing Buyer or Trio referred customers on closings, "Referred Business".

Business to be Conducted: Trio operates a residential home lease financing program offering 1 to 5 year financing through the use of a residential lease with an option to purchase using its proprietary OwnOption Mortgage. Brokers earn commissions for working with their clients to find a qualified home and financing their home with Trio. Additionally, Trio provides referrals to approved participating brokers, "Trio Preferred Agents", from consumers contacting Trio directly "Referrals". This Agreement outlines the referral fee due to Trio for representing Buyer or Trio related referrals upon the closing of related properties.

Referral Fee: Broker shall pay Referring Firm a referral fee and/or transaction fee in accordance with the attached Trio Agent Compensation addendum. Fees shall be paid to Trio Residential, LLC through closing and included in the Commission Disbursement Form prepared by Broker (a copy of which shall be provided to Referring Firm prior to closing). Should the Fee owed not be paid by escrow then Broker shall pay the Referral Fee directly to Referring Firm within three business days of closing at the address noted below.

Other Business: Should a Referral not close a transaction with Trio, then for 12 months following the date of referral of a customer from Trio, Broker agrees to pay the Referral Fee to Referring Firm on all other business generated from said Referral (i.e. rental commission, selling office commission, listing office commission). Should Broker not pay a Referral Fee for any Other Business, and Trio subsequently discovers a commission was paid to Broker related to a Referral, then Broker shall be obligated to pay 50% of the commission to Referring Firm.

Re-Leasing and Listing Fees: Referring Firm agrees to pay Broker 50% of one month's lease payment for re-lease listings. Referring Firm and Broker agree to negotiate terms on a good faith basis for any for sale listing on a case-by-case basis as determined at that time.

Customer Default Provision: Should the Broker refer a customer to Trio that leads to a completed transaction with Trio financing with Broker having received compensation, and that customer later defaults on their Trio Lease obligation within six months of their having moved in the home, then Broker agrees to forfeit its compensation having been paid and return said paid compensation in its entirety to Trio as damages for said default.

Dedication of Resources: Broker agrees to provide all necessary resources as offered in its response to Trio's Request for Proposal that was relied on by Trio when awarding Broker with the Broker Representation Agreement. Trio agrees to support Broker with training of Broker's agents, provide a marketing tool kit for Broker's use, and support introductions from Broker to lenders, builders and others as deemed suitable by Trio.

Term: This Agreement shall be binding upon all parties for an initial term of 12 months. Thereafter, this Agreement shall continue for subsequent 12 month periods from the date of any Referral unless terminated in writing by either party. Upon termination, any transactions in progress will be completed under these agreed upon terms.

How Broker Compensation Works

Agent Compensation: For each Trio closing, one of Trio's designated holding companies is the buyer, and Trio Residential, LLC is the representing and referring broker of record for every Trio transaction. Upon Trio's review of the property and acceptance of the contract, Trio proceeds with financing by having the contract assigned to its named buying entity. Brokers receive negotiated commissions on each closing less a 25% transaction fee paid to Trio. Further, Agents and/or approved Brokerages having been trained in the Trio program and that pass the required test with training will receive the designation of Trio Preferred Agent ("TPA"); this designation will benefit customers with a $400 credit to their required Trio program fees. TPAs must remain active by closing a contract with Trio at least once every 6 months. All forms and program information for Agents can be found at www.trioresidential.com. The table below provides more detail for Agent compensation scenarios.

Procuring Cause: Brokers and their Agents participating with Trio acknowledge and agree that Trio and its designated holding entities are the buyers on every transaction and Trio Residential is the referring broker and Procuring Cause. Brokers and their agents understand that individual customers are not purchasing homes directly, rather Trio is the buyer through its designated holding entities.
